Pamela A. Chisholm

Pam Chisholm, a resident of Duxbury and member of the VSAC board since 2003, has been director of financial aid for the Community College of Vermont since 2002. She held the same post at Trinity College of Vermont from 1989 to 1996. Pam worked at VSAC before and after her service at Trinity, first as a grant counselor and assistant director of the grant program and later as an assistant director in the loan program. She has been active as a leader, presenter, and trainer in the New England region of the College Board and at the state, regional, and national levels of the Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators. She is currently treasurer of the Vermont Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and co-chair of its annual summer conference. Pam has a bachelor's degree from Bowdoin College and a master's degree from the University of Vermont.
